

Artificial Intelligence in education helps personalize learning experiences.

Adaptive learning systems recommend content based on student performance.

Chatbots provide instant answers to student queries.

Important institutions working on AI in education include Carnegie Mellon and EdTech startups.